

Interview Summary

Attorney for the Applicant thanks the Examiner and her Supervisor for the personal interview on October 13, 2011. During this interview the applied references were discussed. Further product samples were displayed showing the low friction surface(s) on commercial articles according to the present invention. Moreover, a draft Declaration by the inventor and articles, testimonials and other documents relating to the commercial products according to the present invention were also reviewed.

While no decision was reached regarding the patentability of the amended claims that are formally presented herewith, the Attorney for the Applicant again thanks the Examiner and her Supervisor for the personal interview.
